

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

2019 HISTORIC PRESERVATION CONFERENCE

April 26, 2019

We are accepting proposals for Education Sessions for the 2019 South Carolina Historic Preservation Conference to be held on Friday, April 26, 2019 at the SC Archives and History Center in Columbia.

Education Sessions cover a variety of topics, and range in difficulty from “Preservation 101” to advanced discussions of cutting-edge issues. Sessions should highlight models, strategies, and solutions that participants can apply in their own communities. Top interests of attendees include:

- Case studies of preservation projects
- Architectural history
- How to research historic buildings
- South Carolina history and archaeology
- Technical preservation topics / how tos
- Funding: grants, tax credits, easements, etc.
- Preservation laws and regulations
- Local government preservation, including local design review
- African American history and preservation projects
- Heritage tourism
- Modern / recent past preservation
- Cemeteries
- Economic revitalization
- Historic gardens / landscapes
- Preservation education and outreach

Please do not feel limited to these topic suggestions.

The session should be interactive, featuring no more than three speakers and a moderator. Each session will last 45 minutes. Plan on 30 minutes for your presentation and 15 minutes for Q&A. If a topic requires more time, please propose two sessions (Part 1 and Part 2). Education Session proposals may be combined when appropriate with other proposed sessions.

To propose a session: please email the following information to Elizabeth Johnson at ejohnson@scdah.sc.gov. Proposals are due Friday, January 18, 2019.
