Luke Alexander is a genealogist and community historian focusing on African-American and Indigenous heritage in the Carolinas. He has ancestry from several of the earliest recorded families of African origin in America, along with being of direct descent from the Lumbee, Waccamaw and Cape Fear Native-American nations. Luke is an inducted member of the Sons of the American Revolution. Luke has also served as Librarian General of the Society of the First African Families of English America.

Tom Elmore holds a B.A. in History and Political Science from the University of South Carolina. He is the author of five books about South Carolina in the 19th century, as well as numerous articles in regional and national publications. He has lectured across the Mid-Atlantic States and has been a book reviewer for two national magazines. He is the current State Historian for the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Molly Fortune is the Executive Director of the South Carolina 250th Commission. Prior to joining SC250, Molly was Executive Director at the world-renowned performing arts center, the Newberry Opera House.

Tyrone Goodwyn has been researching his family since he was fifteen years old. He is a graduate of The College of William and Mary, Old Dominion University, and George Mason University. Retired, he is currently working with Colonial Williamsburg and Custis museums identifying the persons enslaved by the Custis/George Washington/Robert E. Lee family dynasty, from 1607 Eastern Shore to 1800s Mt. Vernon and Washington DC. He is on the board of the North Carolina Genealogy Society.

Kevin Graham is a graduate of Elizabeth City State University. Kevin is a proud descendant of several patriots who fought in the American Revolutionary War. His research as a historian and genealogist has focused primarily on free families of color from the counties of Bladen, Columbus, New Hanover, Robeson, Hoke, and Sampson, (North Carolina) prior to the Emancipation Proclamation of 1863. Kevin accepted the position of President of the Lower Cape Fear Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR), as the first African American to hold the position.

Norm Rickeman is a volunteer historian with the National Park Service at Fort Moultrie in the Charleston area. He has a special interest in the Battle of Sullivan’s Island and the leadership of William Moultrie. Norm holds a math and economics degree from the University of Minnesota and an MBA from the University of Chicago.

Mary Sherrer is a graduate of Bates College and received her MA in Public History from the University of South Carolina. She has worked at museums in New England and in South Carolina, and was most recently associate editor of the Papers of Eliza Lucas Pinckney and Harriott Pinckney Horry, and the Revolutionary Era Pinckney Statesmen digital editions. She is currently the review coordinator for transportation projects at the South Carolina State Historic Preservation Office.

Kim R. Stacy earned a Bachelor's degree with majors in Medieval History, American History, and Military Science and a Master’s degree in Teaching History. He spent 35 years in the military (active and reserve). His field of study is the British Army during the American Revolution. His specific area of expertise is the Highland Regiments and the “life of the common soldier.” He published 12 articles on the 84th Highland Regiment in the UK and has extensive experience as a museum curator.

Riley Sutherland is a History Ph.D. student at Harvard University, with a second field in Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. Her dissertation research focuses on nineteenth-century U.S. history, feminist theory, and the history of medicine. Sutherland earned her B.A. in History and American Studies and her M.A. in History at the University of South Carolina, where she studied women’s participation in the American Revolution. As a public historian, Sutherland also co-directs the Salus Populi Pension Project.
2024 Registration Form

- $50 Early Bird (Before July 31)
- $75 August 1 – November 1
- $100 November 2 – November 16
- $25 Student/Teacher (copy of current school ID required)

☐ Including an additional $35 in my payment for a one-year SC Archives and History Foundation membership.

Name: ________________________________________
Address: ______________________________________
City, State, Zip _________________________________
Phone: ________________________________________
Email: ________________________________________

To register online, please visit: https://form.jotform.com/241424121171946

I would like to charge $ ______ to my credit card
☐ Visa           ☐ Mastercard            ☐ Discover            ☐ Amex
Card # ________________________________________
Expiration date ___________ Security Code ________

I have enclosed a check (#_______) for $ ________
Make check payable to SC Archives and History Foundation

Mail completed form and payment to:
SCAHF
American Revolution Symposium
8301 Parklane Road
Columbia, SC  29223

For additional information call 803-896-0339
or email DFoster@scdah.sc.gov

All cancellations must be made in writing (by email or to the address above). Cancellations requests received before November 1 will be refunded, less a $15 administrative fee. Cancellations on November 1 or later will not be refunded.

Symposium Location
SC Department of Archives & History
8301 Parklane Road
Columbia, SC  29223
Directions: https://scdah.sc.gov/about-us/how-find-us

Seminars will be held in the auditorium.